

and Woden's farewell to Brünnhilde, to be sung by Herr Scaria. The last number will be the final of Act III of "Siegfried," with Materna as Brünnhilde and Herr Winkelmann as Siegfried.

On April 24, the concert will open with the Centennial March, to be followed by the love duet and finale of Act II from "Tristan and Isolde" with the following cast:

Tristan.....	Herr Winkelmann
Isolde.....	Franz Materna
Brangine.....	Herr Scaria
Koulmar.....	Herr Seasia

Several numbers will be given from "Die Meistersinger," namely, Hans Sachs's monologue, the quintet, the choruses of tailors, cobblers, bakers, the dances of apprentices, processional of the master-singers, and chorale, Walter's prize song and finale. The parts will be taken as follows:

Ernst.....	Miss Juch
Magnaghi.....	Miss Winant
Walter.....	Herr Winkelmann
Hans Sachs.....	Herr Scaria
Pogner.....	Mr. Kenmertz

At the matinee on April 26, the programme will be as follows:

L.—The Flying Dutchman.
(a) Overture.
(b) Introduction, ballad and spinning chorus, Act II.
Senta	Miss Emma Juch
Wotan.....	Miss Emily Winant

Herr Die Meistersinger.
(a) Overture.
(b) Pogner's address.
Pogner.....	Herr Endr Scaria

III.—Die Götterdämmerung.
(a) Act III.
Brunehilde.....	Franz Materna
Hagen.....	Herr Winkelmann
Hartmann.....	Mr. F. Kenmertz
Günther.....	(Miss Emma Juch)
Brünnhilde's Daughters.....	Mrs. Hardinge
	Miss Emily Winant

MUSICAL NOTES.

Madame Teresa Liebe announces a concert at Clark's Hall on March 5, at which she will have the aid of Miss Besdie, Miss Behnlein, Mr. Max Henrich, Theodore Liebe and Mr. Max Liebold.

On Thursday evening Professor Otto K. Schell will appear as a solo violin performer at a concert for the benefit of the German Hospital House in Steinway Hall. Professor Schell's pupil of Elizur Shiner, Mr. Stebbins will sing the bugler's song from "Bonaparte's" and another.

The programme of the fourth concert of the Standard Quartette Club, on Tuesday evening, is composed of three very interesting and beautiful numbers, viz.: Schubert's posthumous quartet in D minor; Beethoven's "Kreutzer Sonata" and Mozart's fourteenth quartet in E-flat major. The solo pieces played by Miss Mary Garrels and Mr. Hermon Brandt.

"Orpheus and Eurydice" will give way at the Eliza Opera House on March 5, on an adaptation by Mr. Davis of "La Vie Parisienne." The piece has suffered from the absence of the soprano, but the company will resume the rôle of Jeanne à la mort this evening.

THE COUPLAH COUNTY OUTLAWES.

EXHIBITION OF A DEMOCRATIC MOB AFTER THE MURDERS.

N-E-W-ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—The Senate investigation into the Couplah County, Miss., outrages was concluded to-day. A. W. Burnett, chairman of the independent Executive Committee of Couplah County, was recalled. He is a native of Mississippi, and his father resides twenty miles from Hattiesburg.

The witness testified at a great length, resting what he knew about the outrages, substantially corroborating the testimony of L. H. Mathews, given yesterday. After being shot, and when convalescent, the witness remained ten days or longer at the house of P. J. Mathews, who was himself. He went to Crystal Springs the day before the election and was advised not to return to Hattiesburg, but did return on the Thursday after the election. His friends advised him to leave and he did so. As he did not consider his life safe, he would not return there to live. He had been warned not to return. He believed that if he did, he would be killed. The Republicans, he said, had no right to interfere with his right to live.

On Wednesday it will be twenty-five years since Mr. S. B. Miles began his brilliant musical career in this country. On February 20, 1858, he gave his first concert in the City Assembly Room, introducing to our public Schumann's forte-concerto and Liszt's "Faust."

On Friday, "Orpheus and Eurydice" will resume its hundredth performance, which event will be commemorated by a special addition with scenes from "Cleopatra."

EDWIN BOOTH IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 16.—Edwin Booth closed two weeks' engagement at the Holliday Street Theatre this afternoon, and it was one of the most successful ever played in Baltimore. The receipts aggregated upward of $26,000.

LEWING'S SECOND VISIT TO CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—Henry Irving's return visit to this city has been a successful one, the receipts for the week amounting to $18,399.

NOT IN THE PENITENTIARY.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: Your telegram dated Kingston, N. Y., February 14, giving a brief account of the argument on the motion for a stay of proceedings before Judge Westbrook yesterday in the case of "The People v. F. R. Shewin" for alleged contempt of court, in simply failing to obey a subpoena, is inaccurate, in so far as it states that "he is in the penitentiary." As I am fully satisfied that you desire to publish my name, I will tell you that F. R. Shewin was not "in the penitentiary" and, in the opinion of his counsel, the extensive, unwarranted and unusual sentence imposed by Justice Westbrook in this case was a clear violation of the Constitution.

Yours truly, W. H. QUISCA, of counsel.

A NEW VERSION AND A BETTER MORAL.

To the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: I send the following amended reading of the lines in to-day's Tribune:

Protection in a nutshell means
Safety from all that interferes;
To benefit the masses;
And if it puts the prices high,
The poor will have the means to buy.

Waltham, L. T., Feb. 14, 1884.

MARPLESONS GREAT MERRIT.

From the New York World.

There is something truly grand in the dispatch from Minneapolis which sets forth that the affluous Cornelius Marpleson sympathized with the rebels in his effort to supply the American demand for imported opera. Cornelius Marpleson further stated that on election day when he saw a dead friend lying on the floor, he knew her father had been killed, and at once started for the home and presented a revolver to the murderer. The murderer, a large negro, fled, but was captured on the day when her husband was buried, sufficient reason for her determination not to return.

On the day before the November election, she witnessed that he had better get away. After passing the night in a small hotel, she got up early, took a walk, and then rode a horse to the home of a friend, stating that the best place to be safe was there. Witnesses would be summoned to testify that she was a woman of high character.

Two other women were riding over the county committing outrages. The total vote of Couplah County was over 4,000, and the Democratic votes was 2,000.

Miss Jones, who was born in New Orleans, testified that she went to Washington in December and saw Senator Howard and Durand, and furnished the names of persons who witnessed what he intended to do.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

If they could not, they could not be protected.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.

Miss Jones, who was a Democrat, was not a member of either or not Republicans in the South could be protected from being whipped, flogged and murdered unless they had been an active member of the Ku Klux Klan.